 Instrument Rating Training Offset

The Cessna 172 wet and dry rate is increased by $10/hr to help offset the annual fixed costs of maintaining aircraft to IFR standards.

The Simulator is offered free of charge for solo practice, to students who are currently enrolled in an Instrument Rating flight training program, for the benefit of their education.

Unfortunately due to the high service charges imposed on us by credit card companies, we are unable to process them routinely without passing on the expense to the direct user, in efforts to keep rates as low as possible for all customers and clients. Payment by Credit Card is subject to 2% surcharge.
